2026 to honour digital creators

VIJAYAWADA: The Film and Television Promotion Council (FTPC) India has announced the 'Mana Influencers Awards-2026', an initiative to recognise excellence in digital content creation. The awards ceremony will be held in September 2026 at Hyatt Place, Vijayawada.

FTPC India President Chaitanya Janga and Secretary Varma Pakalapati announced the awards at a press conference in Bharathi Nagar.

The awards will honour leading YouTubers, Instagram creators, social media influencers, food and travel vloggers, tech reviewers, educational creators, fashion and beauty influencers, fitness experts, lifestyle creators, comedy artists, and film and music content creators. The initiative aims to bring digital creators together and encourage meaningful, innovative and socially responsible content. Influencers from Andhra Pradesh and across India are expected to participate.

A key focus will be 'Mana Amaravati - Glory to the World', with influencers creating content highlighting Amaravati's heritage, development and future potential.

Details of nominations, jury and participation guidelines will be announced shortly.

Recognising Talent, Honouring Influence, Celebrating Creativity is the theme of the awards.

1,500 police personnel for CM's Sangareddy visit

SANGAREDDY: Elaborate security arrangements have been made in Sangareddy district ahead of Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy's visit on August 15, with around 1,500 police personnel deployed for bandobast duties.

District SP Paritosh Pankaj reviewed the arrangements with senior officials and directed them to remain alert, coordinate with all departments and ensure there were no lapses. Along with Additional SP Chaitanya Reddy, he inspected the helipad, convoy route, parking areas and meeting venues, including Ambedkar Stadium. Officials reviewed VIP security, traffic regulation, crowd movement, parking and emergency services, with special measures planned to minimise inconvenience to the public.

Buses from Andole will park at Ganji Maidan, while those from Narayankhed, Jinnaram and Hatnoora will use the Government Medical College. Buses from Zahirabad and Sangareddy will use Hostel Gadda
